

Modular seating, simple and ready for various combinations, functional or simply scenic, designed to customise reception areas, break or group-work areas, or simply incorporated into the environment as stylistic or design features with endless colours. An endless selection of combinations of colours and fabrics that can be matched to fully involve sight and touch. In is a collection with strong sensory and communicative content.

The slightly tapered shapes allow the poufs to be combined into blocks whose irregular geometry creates a pleasant compositional effect of non-stop variations.
